

Information regarding Adam Zaremba - Member of the RESBUD SE Supervisory Board since 23 April, 2021.

Experience

Beside his valued academic activity, Adam Zaremba has extensive practical experience in financial markets. For several years he was a manager, economist and strategic advisor in a number of Polish investment fund companies such as Saturn TFI S.A., Amathus TFI S.A., Idea TFI S.A. or Superfund TFI S.A. He holds the CFA, FRM, PRM and CAIA titles, as well as the Investment Advisor license. He is a respected and appreciated international expert in the area of financial markets, investments, portfolio management and asset valuation in a global context.

Education

He holds a PhD and Post-doctoral degree in the field of economic sciences (in the field of finance). Associate professor at the Poznań University of Economics and Business, and also a lecturer at Montpellier Business School (France). Previously, a professor at the University of Dubai (UAE), participant of research visits and internships to many renowned centers, such as McMaster University (Canada), University of Pretoria (South Africa) and Monash University (Australia).

His achievements include nearly 100 scientific publications in renowned international scientific journals and several monographs published by recognized publishers such as Palgrave Macmillan. He has been awarded numerous times for his scientific activity.